

Passion (Palm) Sunday of Lent, Year C

Key Themes: Hosanna! Blessings on the the King who comes in the name of the Lord! The Lord has given me a disciple’s tongue; He has opened my ear. I did not cover my face against insult. The Lord comes to my help so I am untouched. My God, my God, why have You abandoned me? Christ was divine, yet he humbled himself to become like us. Jesus accepted death on a cross, but God raised Him above all others. The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

- Notes:
- (1) There is usually a gospel reading and procession of palms at the start of mass. The gospel will normally be read from the back of the church with the congregation in place.
 - (2) Remember that Christ’s entrance into Jerusalem, celebrated with palms and cries of “Hosanna!” is only a small part of today’s liturgy. The “shape” of this mass is different - it starts at the high point of Christ’s entrance in Jerusalem, then proceeds through His passion and death. Withe the exception of the entrance hymn (All Glory Praise and Honour or The King OF Glory), hymns should reflect the more sombre mood. It is recommended that we use Jesus Remember Me as the final hymn - it could also be used as a thanksgiving. Quiet music or silence at the end of mass would not be out of place, and is encouraged.
 - (3) Remember we do not say (or sing) the Gloria. Also, the Gospel acclamation does not use the word "Alleluia", nor should other hymns or acclamations.
