

Pentecost - Vigil

Key Themes: (1a): It was named Babel because there the Lord confused the language of the whole earth.

(1b): God said to Moses: I carried you on eagle's wing & bought you to myself. If you hold fast to my covenant, I will count you consecrated nation. The the Lord appeared before all on Mount Sinai.

(1c): Dry bones of Israel, I shall breathe my spirit in you, and you will live.

(1d): I will pour out my spirit on all people.

(Ps.): Lord, send out your spirit. Lord, how great you art, and all your works.

(2): The Spirit shall give life and help us in our weakness.

(G): Come to me, all ye thirsty. From the Spirit shall flow fountains of living water.

NOTE: There is a subtle difference between the reading of the Vigil, where we are anticipating the arrival of the Spirit, and the Mass of the Day, where the presence of the Spirit is reflected in our unity and the mission we are given. The Vigil Mass readings are common for all years, but there are 4 possible alternatives for the first reading. Check with the priest to ensure your music choices complement the reading used if possible
